FROM the SIDELINES

By TAD TARG

ULTIMATE CHAMPIONSHIP

With eight matches to go, Prague, on 35 points need only eight more, or a draw per match, to take the Minor Championship outright.

In Rugby League, St. George has a similar points tally.

In fact both teams have had 17 wins and a draw!

Someone has suggested a play-off between them for the ultimate championship of all codes.

One half Rugby, one half soccer.

I don't think it possible.

If they played Rugby first — there would be no soccer players left alive for the second half.

And if they played soccer first — no Rugby players would be left.

They'd be all sent off in the first half...

REPRIEVE?

Should Prague get eight more points, then neither Corrimal nor APIA can possibly wrest the championship from them.

However, these two teams are almost assured of playing in the finals.

Only the fourth place is still open.

Hakoah, Sydney Austral and Gladesville are strongest contenders with Canterbury, Auburn and even Granville an outside chance.

At the bottom — two teams seem to be doomed — Concord and Bankstown.

The third place could be filled by either North Side, Budapest or Balgownie.

All three, and also Bankstown, are playing good First Division soccer at present.

Watching them play in the last few weeks and watching them beat leading teams, one wonders how they possibly could have found themselves at the bottom of the table.

It is a pity they didn't do a little better in the beginning.

It is also a pity that three teams must go down, but that's how the game goes, I suppose.

Or, perhaps the Federation could give them a reprieve, retaining a 14-team competition, with only one team going down and one coming u?

Mind you — they play like they do pulling games out of the fire, defeating favorites or going down fighting — because, and only because, relegation, like the sword of Damocles, hangs over their heads.

But, after all, we had our fun, our excitement and enjoyment at their expense.

And they provided it freely and willingly.

And as they have proved they can play First Division under pressure there is no reason to believe why they couldn't start well next season.

If we have no international tours next year I think we would be able to carry a 14-team competition.

And if we could adopt double-headers — there would be no problem at all.

We need no assurances from these teams — they'd be out to prove the faith placed in them.

SENTIMENTAL

After reading the above paragraph, which is a sort of reversal of what I wrote some weeks ago, you may well call me sentimental.

Well, I am particularly sorry for Bankstown.

Bankstown is one of the strongest junior soccer areas in Sydney.

Also, it is one of the most thickly migrant-populated areas.

These Bankstown migrants differ somewhat to those who live in the Eastern Suburbs.

They are mostly family men, who live in small cottages or temporary dwellings of their own, but have no cars, nor financial means to travel to matches in other suburbs.

They like their soccer.

And, believe it or not, they support their local club, Bankstown.

We had evidence of this in the Bankstown v Prague match, when they cheered and encouraged the local boys.

Should Bankstown go down many of them will be robbed of a chance to see first grade football.

So will the juniors.

On the other hand — if Bankstown could make a genuine effort to draw these migrants into their organisation and setup, like North Side did lately, they could build the team into unprecedent greatness.

Yes, I am sorry.

I live in the municipality.

CONTENDER FOR THE "THRONE"

APIA, seems to be, at present, the strongest challenger for Prague's soccer "throne".

They are a complete team — no stars, but 11 good, first division players.

They have a safe goalkeeper, a tough backline with a masterly touch in the centre, two hardworking and clever wing-halves and five constructive, classy forwards, including two good wingers.

Their midfield play is without question.

But they have one weakness — they pass too much in front of goal.

No one wants to take the risk of shooting, so — they pass the buck.

Biggest offender is Vasvary, otherwise a brilliant inside forward.

If they overcome this complex I am prepared to stick my neck out and give them an even chance of taking the grand final, Prague and all.

ASCOT £1000 CUP COMP.

World renowned tobacco company WD & HO Wills has offered £1000 for a competition on a knock-oul basis.

The offer has been accepted by the Federation and will be staged in a similar manner to the Ampol Cup.

The competition will be known as the Ascot Thousand.

It will begin September 27 with double-header fixtures.

The semi-final and final may be played under floodlight at the Sydney Sports Ground.

WD&HO Wills in the second company to associate itself with soccer in this country.

Ampol, wholly Australian, has become associated with soccer floodlight series, which have proved very popular with fans.

We are confident that the Ascot Thousand will become equally popular.

The Federation is honored that this world-wide organisation has selected soccer in Australia as in its first public venture into sport.

British market wide open to Aust.

Soccer could become Australia's No 1. winter sport within a year if our adm-i nistrators are enterprising enough.

The British "market" is open to us if we are really interested in pushing the code.

For years we have criticised our administrators and rightly so.

They gave us nothing, suggested nothing and supressed those who dared to rebel against decadence and frustration in order to improve the game.

Here now is a challenge to our present soccer administrators all over Australia.

We all know that every year British clubs "free" players in excess of their requirements.

These players' technique is far greater than what we have been accustomed to in this country for the past 20 years.

SNAPPED UP

In Britain these players are snapped up by other professional clubs on the recommendation of a "scout", who is usually on a retainer or bonus from a recipient club.

Players go to the club offering the best terms.

Is it possible for Australia to compete with British clubs for the services of "free" players?

We say yes!

We make the following suggestions to scoop the cream of the "free transfer" market:

- On a State basis all clubs to meet and outline their needs, say a centre half and inside forward.
- What terms jobs, homes and fees, they are prepared to offer and guarantees etc.

At the conclusion of the meeting the State's requirements may be 16 forwards, 10 half backs and 6 full backs.

A qualified representative could then be sent to Britain about three months before the end of their season and be centered in London, Girmingham, Newcastle and Glasgow.

He could scout around the reserve team matches, of say, Arsenal, Tottenham, Chelsea, Manchester Utd., Birmingham, Aston Villa, Rangers and Celtic.

He could assess first hand the capabilities of players before the "free lists" were proclaimed.

He then would be in a position to talk terms.

An alternative to an Australian representative could be the appointment of several overseas scouts.

The only danger is that they may not be qualified to interpret Australian conditions.

It is important that early arrivals are good material and given good conditions on arrival.

The cost of a personal representative could be met from a common "pool" financed from club income and subsidised by the State's administrative body.

In this way all clubs desirous of participating could avail themselves of the "pool" for a balanced development of the code in this State.

JUNIORS KEEN TO TOUR

Your reference to possible overseas tours for junior players (Soccer World 10/7/59) is of interest.

Actually, the NSW Junior Association is at present negotiating with the N. Z. Junior Management Committee concerning an Under 16 visit in May 1960.

A return trip by N. Z. is mentioned for 1961 or 1962.

At the moment N. Z. provincial associations are reporting back on certain aspects of the tour their National Association.

In NSW junior football is expanding at an astounding rate.

Provision is made for as much club football as it is possible to play.

Gala Days, State championships, Robertson Cup etc. provide extra competitions of value.

Last year we were able to begin inter-state matches against Victoria and Queensland in appropriate grades.

Surely we can find a way for the youth of Australia to represent their cities and their country in Association football.

The present N. Z. venture will require about £1200 to finance.

It is far from an impossible task, given the help of the clubs, the Associations, and you our public.

Selection of a squad will have to be carried out by September.

Associations shold be able to earmark £30 towards the passage of a player from their Association this year.

This could be a joint effort between the player's club and District Association.

The balance could be collected early in the 1960 season.

The way is open for a Federation club to provide a coach and facilities.

Surely this team could be a model for future progress in our standard of play.

And again, could we look for the financial support of soccer enthusiasts?

I am sure that it is not too early to set the ball rolling.

International youth tournaments are an important part of overseas soccer schemes.

K. L. Gilmour,
President NSW
Junior FA

Junior players on Television

An outstanding event for the Granville juniors last Saturday, was the showing of films of Granville's Under 10 and Under 12 State Championship fixtures, on the "Westinghause World of Spot" session on TCN.

The films televised were the Under 10 Granville v Bankstown and the Under 12 Granville v Canterbury games played July 4.

Organisers of the films venture, which will form the basis of a film library, were Granville treasurer Charlie Kerslake committeeman Ken Stokes and Granville junior supporter, Mrs P. Lever.

A thrill for two youngsters, who played in the Under 12 Rep. game — Gary Hartshorne (Granville) and Don Murray (Canterbury) — came when they were interviwed before the films were shown.

TEAM of the WEEK

Every week an A and B team is selected from the best players in First Division teams.

The best A team player is nominated as the "Player of the Week" and scores three points.

All other A team nominations receive two points and B team players one point.

The player with the highest number of points at the end of the season will automatically become Player of the Year.

Ampol Cup fixtures, Federation Cup matches and the competition semi-finals, final and grand-final are not taken into account.

Here are the players who stood out in last weekend's two rounds of matches.

Player of the Week

L. QUESTED

(AUBURN)

Auburn's English inside left gains his second "Player of the Week" nomination and thoroughly game this honor.

He undoubtedly played his greatest game of the season on Saturday, when he spearheaded his team in a tremendous display of dashing bursts and grand positional play.

Quested worked tirelessly and was continually on the move, relieving pressure with swerving solo runs, which always put his forwards on the attack.

This weekend's games preview

APIA v HAKOAH

I expect the biggest crowd of the season to pack into Lambert Park to watch this much-awaited clash between the State's greatest drawcards.

The first-round match ended in a 1—1 draw and was a hectic affair with very little good soccer.

But I expect Sunday's game to produce top-class soccer, as both teams are really playing well now and have a tremendous incentive to win.

APIA were magnificent last week when they defeated Auburn and held Corrimal to a draw down the coast the following day, to move up to second position on the points table.

By L. Gautier

If APIA wins against Hakoah they cannot be beaten for a semi-final berth and this thought should spur them on to greater heights.

The Leichhardt team deserved its win last Saturday and, though they definitely scored two very controversial goals, the general trend of play was largely in their favor.

They were much more pressing and played the better football.

The forward line functioned very well and Vasvary, who is returning to his old form, got excellent support from both Eggler and Pittioni.

De Paoli was always a danger in front of goal, giving Duff a torrid time in defence.

On Sunday, APIA gained a very meritorious draw at Corrimal and must be congratulated for not having wilted after their strenuous and thrilling encounter with Auburn the previous day.

The Corrimal match was a dour battle which could have gone either way, but APIA surprisingly were on top in the last half-hour.

Goalie Alocca was APIA's hero down the coast and could turn on another grand display at Lambert Park when facing the rangy Burgoyne and Co.

Hakoah, the visitors on Sunday, were not too impressive against luckless Bankstown and just scraped home.

The forwards tried hard, but with little success, as usual.

I doubt if Hakoah will be capable of breaking through the workmanlike APIA halves and backs on Sunday and for that reason I am confident that APIA will take both points.

On the other hand, Hakoah's defence is equally remarkable.

It will be immensely strengthened if Walsh returns and De Paoli, Vasvary, Pittioni and Turella will also find it hard to pass Aird and his boys.

But I feel the home team's forwards have much more sting than their opponents.

PRAGUE v GLADESVILLE

A month ago this could have been the most exciting match of the season, as Gladesville were playing their best football ever and had excellent semi-finalist prospects.

Loss of form

They could have been expected to repeat their first-round draw or, even better, beat Prague for the first time since last October.

Since Gladesville's rousing string of wins things have changed.

Prague have a record 9-point lead over their nearest opponents and Gladesville's hopes are getting slimmer with every match.

The side is showing signs of staleness, which indicates that it will find the going much too hard against Prague on Saturday to expect another draw.

HUME

Gladesville could only hold Balgownie to a scoreless draw on their home-ground, which certainly does not say much for Hume's and Foster's current form.

The forwards could not pass Billington, Grant, Robinson and McKinnon last Saturday and I doubt if they will be capable of upsetting O'Neill, Hiron and the gifted Prague half-wings.

Prague coasted to a 2—1 win over Sydney Austral on Saturday and only showed rare flashes of brilliance.

They adopted a "could-not-care-less" attitude which is unworthy of players of their calibre.

Baumgartner, still unfit, should have stayed on the sidelines.

Prague gave their worst display of the season and will have to shake off this complacency this weekend.

Their opponents have men like Hume, Pettigrew and Greenfield, who could capitalise on the slightest opportunity and give Prague something to think about.

Gladesville will be out to score the first goal early in the match, and if they do it will give them such a terrific lift and anything could happen.

I cannot believe Prague is showing signs of staleness, but am rather inclined to believe that the team only lifts its game for what it considers a big occasion.

I can assure them this will be a "big occasion", as Gladesville are after their scalp.

Nevertheless, I tip PRAGUE to win for two reasons:

- Gladesville is nowhere near its mid-season form.
- Prague will be keen to atone for the only point it has dropped so far.

I expect Saturday's match to produce top-class soccer, which will be well worth watching.

MATHYSEN

BANKSTOWN v SYD. AUST.

Though Sydney Austral had a crushing 5—1 win last April it it not beyond Bankstown to reverse this result as Austral has only won one match since May 23.

They still retain a chance of making the semi-finals, but the team is not playing up to the standard expected of a prospective semi-finalist.

Sydney Austral only went down very narrowly to Prague last Sunday, but did not make the most of their opponents' obvious off-day.

Had Smit been a more effective centre forward his team could have been the first to topple Prague.

His bursts of speed clearly had Hiron rattled early in the match, but he faded out of the picture altogether later, as did the whole attack.

The backs and halves alone played a First Division brand of football.

De Vries' long clearances always put his team in attack and this could disturb Madden and his defenders on Saturday

Sydney Austral will be confident of winning, but I cannot see eye to eye with them on that point, as I think Bankstown might have the counter to Austral's style of play.

Bankstown tipped

Coach Metrovich could develop a plan to upset his opponents' smooth-running defence, and if Wainwright can return to boost the forwards I expect the home-team to win.

I may be sticking my neck out, but I have a feeling that BANKSTOWN will win this match.

It is certainly a shame that the Towns were not able to secure some of the coveted Queensland stars, for even at this late stage they might have staged a miracle recovery, similar to that achieved by North Side.

Sydney Austral will want to prove me wrong, as a win would enhance their semi-final chances, especially as Hakoah are likely to go down to APIA the following day.

One thing is certain, the match will be close and thrilling with a lot at stake.

Though Sydney Austral are in a much better position, I still think the locals will win.

GRANVILLE v CANTERBURY

Both teams are on 17 points and a win would put either well out of the dreaded danger area and a defeat would put the loser in a rather bad spot.

This match will be a relentless one and one cannot but be sorry to see Canterbury involved in such a game.

Canterbury, the best team in Australia last season, now is just one of the rank and file and in the lower ranks ot that.

It has been hit with injuries and, though the club has Sydney's most promising youngsters, these lads are not quite ready for top-flight soccer.

Canterbury had a fair share of the ball against North Side, but the forwards never got moving and too many lateral passes went astray.

The defence was a bit weak and Curry was not up to his usual standard.

Barry Salisbury was the only man of his team to stand out in the weekend's two games.

It was pleasing to see young Warren notch his team's two goals on Sunday.

Granville were not troubled to defeat Concord and were content to maintain a two goal margin throughout.

Englishman Barry Rae is a great replacement for veteran Ray Marshall at centre forward and should make a name for himself very soon.

It was surprising to see both wingers blotted out of the game so often and much credit must go to the Concord full backs for accomplishing this.

Though the match against Concord held very few clues as to how the Magpies will fare tomorrow, I expect them to defeat Canterbury and repeat their unexpected first-round win.

But if they record another victory this week it will be much less of a surprise as Canterbury are a mere shadow of the sensational 1958 Berries.

As I said above I think GRANVILLE will win this match and kill Canterbury's very slim chances.

As I see it Canterbury will have to start serious thinking on their current policy and methods, if they are not to slip still further and find themselves in the incredible situation of having to fight for survival.

Good run

NORTH SIDE v CORRIMAL

The return matches "surprise-packet" North Side, undefeated since their loss to Prague seven weeks ago, will be hoping to topple Corrimal after Canterbury last week.

I would not be surprised if they came awfully close to winning both points.

They still urgently need points to leave the "horror zone" for good.

North Side convincingly beat Canterbury at Arlington Oval last Saturday, and it was good to see Johnny Wong return to his best form.

Right-winger Brian Taber also gave an outstanding display.

But no one played better than kenny Stiles and the hard-working Haschke.

I wonder what would have happened if NSU had acquired its present team at the beginning of the season.

I venture to say that they would be vying for a place in the top four instead of battling to stave off relegation.

One thing is certain — the team always tries to play entertaining soccer and this is rapidly gaining a fine reputation.

This could bear fruit next season, when they could well become a leading drawcard.

Corrimal could not capitalise on Arias obvious weariness and though the half back line was as solid as usual, and Rowles tried hard, the team never settled down properly.

Tough nut

The Miners will find their hosts a very tough nut to crack and their traditional "fighting spirit" might not be enough to hold this very complete and purposeful North Side XI.

This will be a hard-fought 90 minutes of good football and though the odds might favor North Side United, I am going for a DRAW.

But do not be surprised if the home team tips the scales their way.

ROWLES

It will be interesting to see Wong pitted against Phil Peters, Corrimal's stalwart in defence, and the bustling Learmonth opposed to the most-improved centre half in Sydney, K. Stiles.

BUDAPEST v CONCORD

The first-round match produced an argy of goals and, I expect tomorrow's match to follow the same pattern if Galambos has recovered sufficiently from last Sunday's injury to take the field.

Galambos has scored nearly half of Budapest's goals so far this season, and an injury that would keep him out would deal a shattering blow to his club at a stage where they must fight for every point.

WEEKEND PREVIEW

Budapest undoubtedly benefited from Auburn's great efforts the previous day.

But this does not take any of the credit away from them as they too had to battle against heavy odds with two "passengers" for most of the 90 minutes.

The feature of their match was the defence's glorious display, and for the first time this year the backs and halves outshone the flying forwards.

GALAMBOS

None played better than goalie Binary, Kósa and the conscientious Kovács.

Concord now is virtually in Second Division, but could still cause a few upsets before the end of the season, particularly now that they have nothing to lose.

I would not be surprised if the gallant Concord team handed out some shocks in the Federation Cup.

I am tipping BUDAPEST to win, provided it is not hampered by "crocks", otherwise Concord could spring a surprise.

BALGOWNIE v AUBURN

Last weekend was a black one indeed for Auburn, who lost practically all hope of making the semis following two defeats in a row.

I am afraid that the team's morale will be very low when it plays the improved Balgownie down the coast on Sunday.

Quested played his best match of the season against APIA and his great display deserved a better fate.

Unfortunately the backs let the side down again, and though goalie Henderson made some good saves early he seemed unusually nervous at times.

The team was very tired on Sunday and could not match Budapest's speed.

Auburn are right in the middle of a very bad patch, following six matches without a win.

BALGOWNIE should take full advantage of this "collapse" and take both points on Sunday.

Their defence is rock-like and even if Wilf Billington, who was brilliant against Gladesville, is still unfit, reserve player Tishkan is an able substitute in goal.

McWatters, Barlowe and Kay will prove a constant danger to the unsteady Auburn backs and Henderson will have to work wonders again to keep the score down.

I feel that though Auburn has the better forwards on paper, it will be the Balgownie attack which will be succesful.

The Villagers have a much stronger defence than last year's grand finalists.

The South Coast fans should see a good match, vital to both teams, and this is the last, I repeat the very last, chance Auburn has to keep their semis hopes alive.

BIG BUILD UP IN HIGH SCHOOLS

Sydney Combined High Schools inter-school competitions field 57 soccer teams.

In addition, 106 teams of the associated schools play regularly.

The associated schools of the PSAAA will become full High Schools shortly.

This will bring about much zoning of sport.

It is expected that many High Schools will then be able to build inter-school teams, in addition to the inter-house teams playing in soccer within the schools.

Good standard

Of the regular High Schools who delayed introduction of soccer, Canterbury High and Sydney Tech. High are now playing class soccer.

Thus their entry into the full High School competitions cannot be long denied.

All interested in the progress of soccer can assist by seeing that soccer is well represented in each zone of the CHS, which will become more than ever a source of players for senior and junior clubs.

Victorian News and Views

From L. K. STONE

Speedy George Cross defeated Slavia 2—0 in the main match at Olympic Park on Saturday.

After an even, dull and scoreless first half, the Maltese improved their all round play and finished too strongly for Slavia.

Scorers for George Cross were Lolly Vella and the ever dangerous Zammit.

I thought that Slavia defenders hard tackling game against a fast and surefooted team as George Cross were negative tactics, which were bound to fail in the long run.

However, the Czechs had really first-class players in goalkeeper Borotaja, Gotschlicht and the industrions Vacirca.

Best for George Cross were McVean, Muskat and Zammit.

With a good second half performance, George Cross enhanced their reputation as a strong final four contender.

Polonia had the edge on Moreland in their 2—1 victory, but failed to impress as a potential top State League side.

Although the Poles were surer in attack and their teamwork was better, Moreland fully extended their opponent and led 1—0 at half-time, Smith being the scorer.

Early in the second half Gassior equalised and Szygalski, after a glorious individual effort — beating three men, enabled Zavatier to score the well-deserved winner for the Poles.

Lowly Footscray surprised the much fancied Juventus machine by holding them to a 1—1 draw in a workman-like display.

Juventus rested their young star centre forward Babazza, but ex-Tottenham Hotspur Tomblin gave a fine performance in his place, and was decidedly unlucky only to score once.

Dona was Footscray's goalgetter.

Best for Juventus were Vitty, Tomblin, Saicco, Oughton and Trentini.

For Footscray none played better then their goalkeeper Massese, who made many good saves, Wemys, McLeod and Donna.

Fighting finish

Rejuvenated Box Hill staved off a fighting finish by JUST to win 1—0 and free themselves from relegation worries.

Old-head Angus Drennan, who has done tremendous work as captain-coach in the last few months, was again the best player in Box Hill's lineup.

He was ably assisted by McKillop and Bedford, scorer of the all-important goal.

JUST, who can play a lot better, had bright lights in Rodek, Rezuk and Beattie.

In a fast and exciting game, Geelong just managed to defeat Yarra Park 4—3.

Geelong's young goalie Castellari again showed promise and a big future is expected for this barely 16-year-old lad.

Scorers for Geelong were Juhász 2, Veres and Schneider; for Yarra Park, Licouressis and Koykonaris.

Wilhelmina, tougher and faster, played intelligent football to outclass a bewildered and spiritless Hakoah 6—1.

More than 8000 spectators came to Olympic Park on Sunday to see this needle match between the two top teams, expecting a high standard game, but which they saw only for the first 25 minutes.

One-sided

After that, it became an one-sided affair with Wilhelmina taking complete control of the game, making Hakoah look ragged and flatfooted.

Hakoah was first score with a well-taken free kick by Meier.

Delgeorge equalised shortly after and then the Dutch team got goals at regular intervals.

Hakoah's forward line waws a complete failure on the day, while Wilhelmina's forwards, never put a foot wrong.

Left winger Delgeorge was allowed too much latitude by Thomas and Alexander and, therefore, had no difficulty in scoring four times.

Noy, playing inside forward, proved to be a fine opportunist and scored two goals.

Best for Wilhelmina were Noy, Veterwelt, DeBruekere and Morks.

For Hakoah, Hartley, Barker, Bruchard and Artner, who played a lone hand in the feeble forward line, were best.

Olympic Park will see two interesting matches this weekend — on Saturday Geelong play George Cross and on Sunday JUST oppose Juventus.

It is expected that JUST will include two newly imported First Division players from Yugoslavia.

Too strong

Hakoah will have to play better to gain the points against the vastly improved Box Hill team, while Footscray should extend Polonia.

On last week's form Wilhelmina will be too strong for Slavia, though this could be one of the best matches of the round.

Moreland should not be unduly troubled by Yarra Park, who seem to be completely out of luck in the State League.

In the strong Metropolitan South Division, the clashes between Melbourne and South Melbourne and Yallourn v Dandenong should be interesting fixtures.

Melbourne, in particular, are a most attractive team to watch and their team is equal is strength to most State League teams.

RIVERINA ROUND-UP

By GEORGE COUSINS

The Riverina had a weekend of first-class soccer, which produced some surprise results.

Rangers made amends for their big defeat last week when they drew with highly-rated Army 2—2.

Big Bill Deklein made his debut in goal and saved many sizzlers.

Muir (Army) played soundly and showed good ball control.

Teachers College and Arsenal drew 4—4.

The young College side are improving and again the left flank, Lobb, Geekie and Skinner were the main factors in giving the team a lift.

Pitura, battled on gamely after and injury to hold his defence together.

On Sunday, Henwood Park drew with competition leaders Leeton 2—2.

Dejong brothers, Wright and Davis turned in a sterling performances for the home side.

Master tactician John Rodgers, Fuggles at centre half and Spence were best for Leeton.

The only team to record a win was Griffith, who narrowly beat RAAF 3—2.

Growing crowds

The Wagga Association hopes to have more exciting games this weekend to hold the growing crowds.

Leeton are at home to College, which shuold be a good match.

Leeton might be too strong, but if the Teachers play like they did last weekend they could surprise.

The Arsenal—RAAF clash should be a close one as the teams are evenly matched.

Skipper Tutt (RAAF) will need to keep his boys right up to the Arsenal defence.

Pitura hopes to be fit and if so will keep the Air Force boys busy.

Henwood Park are hosts to the Army this week.

The Dutch-Anglo team are enxious to avenge a first round playing good soccer and are defeat.

Muir, Brent and Bessey are always sound for the Army, so Henwood will have to watch them closely.

Griffith will make 120-mile trip to play Wagga United on Sunday.

The MIA team are confident of victory against United, who are having a run.

Changing pattern in club strengths is warning for officials

In the first year of the Federation, the top four at the end of the season were Canterbury, Auburn, Bankstown and Gladesville.

In 1958, the semi-finalists were Corrimal, Canterbury, Auburn and Prague.

Of interest is the fact that old-established names featured prominently in the leading group in those years.

This season it looks like Prague, APIA, Hakoah and Corrimal — the only survivor of the "old brigade" — featuring in the semi-finals.

This could well be the beginning of a new era in soccer as distinct from the old.

Administrators have been content to "drift" along, surviving on a meagre income derived from "guessing" competitions etc.

Time to review committee activities

The reason that the "new look" clubs are prominent in the competition must be obvious to those who are now slipping down the league table.

Capital, business enterprise and good coaching have achieved for them the success they now enjoy.

In order to compete with them it will be necessary to take stock of the season's activities within club committees.

A new approach to the game is necessary if the old-established clubs hope to survive.

Neerlandia set for promotion

Neerlandia consolidated their position at the top of the Second Division last weekend with a 1—0 victory over their nearest rivals Concordia.

They look all set for promotion to Division I, with a comfortable 3-point lead.

Pan Hellenic, who threatened early in the season then fell away, are making a recovery and could again be a possibility for promotion before the season ends.

St. George would have been strong contenders had they acquired the services of McComish some weeks earlier.

Nevertheless, they are consolidating for a determined bid in 1960.

In the Third Division Toongabbie still lead from Manly, who are striving to overtake the leaders.

Toongabbie are a well organised and enterprising club.

They are determined to maintain their position and win their way to Division II.

Lansvale are a long way behind, being 8 points from Manly.
